

I. COURSE INFORMATION

- A. Agriculture 101 Agriculture Orientation
- B. 1 credit hour
- C. Ellis, Dave. Becoming A Master Student. 12th ed. Kentucky: Cengage, 2010
- D. Prerequisites: None

II. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will enable the student to learn more about the basic objectives, organization and procedures of post-secondary education. In this course, students will develop skills that will help them succeed in higher education. Students will learn about future careers in agriculture and the educational opportunities available to them.

III. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- A. Explain the objectives, organization and basic procedures of higher education institutions with emphasis placed on Allen Community College
- B. Develop study and survival skills that will help students succeed in higher education
- C. Discuss the educational opportunities within the field of agriculture
- D. Discuss the job opportunities open to agriculture students
- E. Select a career path and develop a plan to achieve those goals

IV. MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

- A. How to make a smoother transition to college
- B. Study skills required to becoming a successful college student
- C. Types of degrees available at Allen Community College
- D. College majors available to agriculture students
- E. Career opportunities available to agriculture graduates

V. ASSIGNMENTS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Selection of an Allen Community College degree
- B. Selection of a college major
- C. Development of a two year plan
- D. Development of a resume

VI. EVALUATION METHODS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Attendance and participation
- B. Assignments
- C. Reports
- D. Quizzes and exams