

I. COURSE INFORMATION

- A. Business 222 Business Law II
- B. 3 credit hours
- C. Beatty, Samuelson, and Abril. Introduction to Business Law. 6th ed. Massachusetts: Cengage, 2019

II. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course covers the topics of agency and employment, partnerships, corporations, risk-bearing devices, property rights, administrative law, and employment law. This course is based on the Universal Commercial Code and is designed to help the student avoid basic problems and to know when to ask for professional help.

III. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- A. Understanding of how laws and the legal system influence business decisions
- B. Understanding of the different types of business organizations, including the benefits and drawback of each form of business organizations
- C. Become familiar with different legal classifications of property
- D. Understanding of administrative law and the predominant areas of employment law
- E. Basic understanding of credit transactions, including security and bankruptcy law
- F. Become familiar with antitrust laws

IV. MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

- A. Business organizations
- B. Property law
- C. Employment law
- D. Credit transitions
- E. Administrative law

V. ASSIGNMENTS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Discussions
- B. Projects
- C. Quizzes
- D. Exams

VI. EVALUATION METHODS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Assignments
- B. Participation
- C. Quizzes
- D. Exams