

I. COURSE INFORMATION

- A. Leadership 101 Principles Of Leadership
- B. 3 credit hours
- C. Northouse, P.G. Introduction to Leadership. 5th ed. Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publishing, 2020
- D. Prerequisites: None
- E. KRSN: BUS 2010 Principles of Leadership

The learning outcomes and competencies detailed in this course outline or syllabus meet or exceed the learning outcomes and competencies specified by the Kansas Core Outcomes Groups project for this course as approved by the Kansas Board of Regents.

II. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is a survey of leadership theories and an introduction to the study of effective leadership. Course activities move from theory-based activities to practical experience through classroom interaction and projects to create positive change. The course includes an examination of personal leadership potential and an articulation of a personal leadership theory.

III. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- A. Analyze personal strengths, styles and preferences that contribute to leadership
- B. Explore, apply, and reflect on basic concepts of leadership
- C. Examine the relationship of ethics, diversity, and inclusion in leadership
- D. Communicate knowledge about and application of leadership to others
- E. Observe and critique leadership in a community setting

IV. MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

- A. Introduction to leadership
- B. Research perspectives on leadership
- C. The individual and leadership
- D. Relationship building
- E. Strategic direction, culture, and change

V. ASSIGNMENTS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Self-insight activities
- B. Group activities and discussion
- C. Case studies
- D. Course project

VI. EVALUATION METHODS (may include but are not limited to)

- A. Attendance and participation
- B. Assignments and activities
- C. Quizzes
- D. Exams